Dear John:

Thank you for your letter of June 19 and the information from Senora Delano on a reported Christian Democratic hold-up of activity by women's organizations concerning the Presidential election.

My staff has been in contact with Des FitzGerald's staff on this subject, and I understand both staffs were surprised at this report and unaware of any such action, despite the fact that they are closely following women's activities affecting the election.

I have asked for a check in Santiago on this report, however, since I believe nothing should be left to chance regarding the effectiveness of anti-Allende action in this field. All of us concerned have been keenly aware of the decisive factor of the women's vote, especially given Frei's special appeal in this sector. I will let you know if any problems exist which cannot be quickly resolved.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas C. Mann
